

Ivy Hill Style Guide

This guide is intended for use in classifying the gravestones and monuments of the Ivy Hill Cemetery. Each term has a description, along with a picture so that it cannot be identified. They are grouped together for simplicity, but it's important to note that some graves will have multiple terms from one group, or contain no elements of a group.

Matt.t.bova@gmail.com April 21, 2020

Top of Stone

Term	Description	Picture
Serpentine top	Top of stone has a slope in the center, and a valley on each side
Flat Top	Top of stone is flat
Round Top	Top of stone has a simple slope
Smooth Top	Top of stone has been smoothed out
Rough Top	Top of stone has been left unsmoothed by design
Gothic Top	Circular top in the center with decorative elements on each side

Text

Term	Description	Picture
Engraved Text	Text is dug into the stone's face
Raised Text	Text is on the top of the stone's face

Bordering

Term	Description	Picture
Polished Border Area	Area around text is polished
Engraved Border Line	Line around text has been dug into the stone's face
Engraved Border Area	Area around text has been dug into the stone's face
Raised Border Line	Line around text is on top of the stone's face	<Not found Yet>
Raised Border Area	Area around text is on top of the stone's face	<Not found Yet>
Decorated Border	Border line/area has been decorated, add details to Notes section

Body of Stone

Term	Description	Picture
Smooth body	Stone has been smoothed along the sides and front

Rough body	Stone has been left unsmoothed along the sides and front
------------	--	---

Gravestone Style

Term	Description	Picture
Upright	Body of stone is upright, typically has a base
Small Flat	Face of the stone is on top, small rectangular shape
Raised Full Slab	Large body of stone laid flat, face of stone is on top

Upright Slant	Body of stone is upright, with a slanted face, has a base
Raised Slant	Top of stone is slanted and has the text
Obelisk	Body of stone incorporates an obelisk shape into its design

Cradle	Long bed that extends from a headstone
Flush Flat	Top of stone is flat against the ground, text written over top

Special

Term	Description	Picture
Double Companion	Two people marked on the same stone

Frank Lloyd Wright	Grave based off a design by architect Frank Lloyd Wright
--------------------	--	--

Material

Term	Picture
Bronze
Marble

Granite

